NARRATIVE:

George Acosta is a sex offender with an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 26. His convictions include sexual battery, evading a peace officer, multiple cases for sex registration violations, burglary, domestic violence with injury, weapons violations, possession of narcotic controlled substances, use of PCP, receiving stolen property, petty theft and DUI. He has served multiple state prison terms, the longest being a 2 year term for a sex registration violation. Acosta was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on April 30, 2015. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. He subsequently failed to report to his probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in June 2016 after he absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Acosta qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because his current commitment offense for a sex registration violation is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. His criminal history, sex offender status and current failure to comply with the terms of release make him a most wanted. If you know his whereabouts please contact...
